NOTIFICATION

Simla 4, the 19th June, 1954

No. L-58-29.50-II.—In pursuance of the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 36 of the Punjab Small Towns Act, 1922, as applied to Himachal Pradesh, the following general order made by the Town Committee of Joginder Nagar, in the Mandi District, in exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (P) of section 35 and clause (b) of section 41 of the said Act, for the regulation of slaughter houses, having been approved by the Lieut.-Governor, Himachal Pradesh, are published for general information and shall come into force from the date of the notification.

GENERAL ORDER

1. No animal shall be slaughtered at a slaughter house unless it has been inspected and passed by the Superintendent, Slaughter House, appointed for the purpose.

2. The Superintendent, Slaughter House, shall examine every animal produced before him for slaughter and satisfy himself that the animal is :—

- [1] Fit for use as human food;
- [2] Not diseased or advanced in pregnancy;
- [3] Not in an emaciated or worn out condition:

Provided that an animal which has met with an accident is unfit for further work shall not be rejected merely on this account.

3. If the Superintendent, Slaughter House, is satisfied he shall cause the animal to be branded with a municipal brand.

4. No animal shall be admitted and no person shall bring any animal in to the Slaughter House unless it has been branded as prescribed in rule 3 above. If any animal branded as above is not brought to the slaughter house within three days of the affixing of such brand a fresh inspection shall be obtained for such animal.

5. No person other than an officer or servant of the Committee, the butchers and their assistants shall enter upon the premises of any slaughter house of any part thereof during the process of slaughtering, skinning or cutting up the carcasses.

6. No person affected with tuberculosis or any infectious or contagious disease, sores or any other skin disease shall enter or be allowed to enter the slaughter house premises or any part thereof.

7. No dogs shall be admitted into or be allowed to enter any slaughter house.

8. No animal shall be admitted and no person shall bring any animal into the slaughter house unless it is intended for immediate slaughter: All animals awaiting slaughter shall be kept in pens attached to the slaughter house and there properly secured until required for slaughter.

9. No person shall slaughter any animals at a slaughter house at such hours as may from time to time be fixed by the Committee. These hours shall be notified in some conspicuous place in the slaughter house.

10. Each butcher shall have a place assigned to him for slaughtering by the official incharge and he shall slaughter the animals immediately over the drain so as to prevent the blood of the animal from flowing up on the floor.

11. Every carcass shall after slaughtering, skinning and cleaning be inspected by the Superintendent of Slaughter House at the slaughter house and found for human consumption each separate piece of such carcass shall have impressed thereon or affixed thereto under the supervision of the Superintendent, Slaughter House, each stamp or seal as may from time to time be prescribed by the committee.

12. Skins entrails or offal shall be removed from the slaughter house by the butchers and any skins entrails or offal not removed before the time at which the slaughter house is closed for the day shall become the property of the committee and be disposed off in such manner as it deems fit.

13. No person shall remove any entrails and offal from the slaughter house until they have been properly washed and cleaned.

14. The solid contents of the entrails shall not be allowed to be washed into the drain or allowed to drop on to the floor, but shall be emptied into the buckets or receptacles provided for this purpose.

15. Meat and entrails and offal shall be removed from the slaughter house in covered baskets or vessels or a pattern to be approved by the health officer, and the official incharge of each slaughter house shall daily inspect the said carts, baskets or vessels and see that they are kept clean and in good order. He shall not allow any meat to be removed in a cart, basket or vessel that is not clean or in a good order.

16. All meat, entrails and offal from the slaughter house shall be carried to the place set apart for sales along such route as the committee may, from time to time prescribe and shall reach such time as the committee may fix.

17. No person shall blow or stuff any meat within the slaughter house premises and the Health Officer or Superintendent slaughter house may cause to be destroyed any meat found to be blown or stuffed.

18. Every butcher shall have to keep the tail with its hair with the carcass of all animals slaughtered. So that the purchaser may know the kind of meat he is purchasing and fee of /4/- shall be charged per goat or sheep which is to be slaughtered in the Municipal Slaughter House.

19. Any person using a slaughter house shall be responsible for any damage wilfully or negligently caused to the slaughter house either by his own act or act of his servants and any person who refuses to pay for such damage shall be excluded from the slaughter house until such payment is made.

20. No person shall remove, deface or alter any brand impressed in accordance with rule 3 above or any stamp or seal impressed upon or affixed to any part of a carcass in accordance with the rule 12 above nor shall any person impress or affix any brand, seal or stamp on any animal or carcass except in accordance with rule 3 and 12 above.

2. A breach of any of the above rules shall be punishable with fine which may extend to twenty rupees and when the breach is a continuing one with a further fine which may extend to two rupees for a day after the date of the first conviction for which the breach continues.

By order,
PREM RAJ,
Assistant Secretary.
